

HOTEL ROOMS + PRECONVENTIONS

HOTELS – RESERVATIONS BEGIN MARCH 13 AND CLOSE APRIL 5

Reservations will be accepted from March 13 to April 5. NO reservations will be accepted before March 13. Availability of reservations and price cannot be guaranteed once rooms are sold out. The hotels will sell out by April 5, so it is important for large delegations to reserve rooms starting March 13.

This year there are two hotel options: Boston Marriott Copley Place and the Sheraton Boston. Both hotels accept online reservations. Go to www.massteacher.org/annualmeeting for the hotel reservation links. There are NO paper reservations; you MUST use the online link with a credit card to secure your reservation.

Boston Marriott Copley Place

- Recommended for larger delegations.
- Online system can reserve up to 20 rooms at a time and can be modified to select different types of rooms and different dates.
- Modifications (i.e., changing/adding delegate names) can be made online once a confirmation e-mail has been received.
- There is no need for paper forms.
- The triple and quad rates are lower.

Sheraton Boston

- Recommended for Regional Ethnic Minority Delegates, Statewide Retired District Delegates, & other individual reservations.
- The online system is geared toward individual reservations.
- The online system allows booking for up to 15 rooms at a time, with limitations.
- For group reservations, rooms MUST be the same for everyone (same check-in/check-out dates & type of room); otherwise, you will need to make multiple reservations.
- Closer to the Hynes; easier to get to if someone has trouble walking long distances.
- A paper form is required if names of the delegates aren't provided at the time of reservation; you will then need to e-mail a paper rooming list form to the Sheraton Boston.

For MTA Board, Staff, Working Committees, SEAM Delegates, NEA Directors and Past Presidents, please follow a separate online link at www.massteacher.org/annualmeeting to make your reservation.
